This is a peoples' conference. It is free and open to all. For each of the last 10 years about 350 engaging scholars, students, activists, writers, community and cultural workers, primarily concerned peoples of the global south, resident in the imperial north, have found it informative, stimulating, and important, and look forward to attending. Please register through <nc.programs@utoronto.ca> or <arnold.itwaru@utoronto.ca> well ahead of the date so we can cater for enough food for everyone. There is no registration fee. Lunch will be provided at no cost.

Further details of the conference program will follow, but do mark October 27th and plan to attend this important event.
